F. S. HERR IN THE RACE FOR SUPERVISOR

Mr. F. S. Herr who has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for Supervisor is a little late in getting into the race for this important office, but having concluded to make the race he is desirous of having the voters of Coconino county know something of his personality and qualifications.

Mr. Herr is a farmer living on a homestead 4 miles east of Williams. He has lived in Coconino county for several years and believes he understands the demands which the Supervisors office will make on an incumbent and that he can perform the duties of the office in a manner acceptable to the voters of his county. He is a man in the prime of life full of vigor and determination.

Mr. Herr has had many years experience in business and he knows the ropes. His business experience would be a protection to Coconino county and a guarantee that the people would get full value for the money they pay in taxes.

AN ERROR CORRECTED

The name of Geo. T. Herrington, republican candidate for Supervisor was confused last week with that of John O. Harrington, the one candidate for the republican nomination for sheriff, and the News credited Mr. Geo. Herrington with an ambition to be sheriff. The News wishes its readers to understand very distinctly that Mr. Geo. T. Herrington of Flagstaff is a candidate for the republican nomination for Supervisor and not for sheriff.

J. S. BUTTON WOULD MAKE A GOOD JUSTICE

Mr. J. S. Button, candidate for the republican nomination for Justice of Peace in the Williams precinct is a charter member of this community, having come to Williams in 1892. There are very few in Williams who preceded him.

Mr. Button has had an important and prominent part in the upbuilding of the town. He built the first schoolhouse in Williams and he has done much other building in and for the community. His constructiveness has not been confined to mechanical lines. He has been a thoroughly good citizen through it all and has done no small part towards building up the moral interests of Williams. His experience in civil affairs, his knowledge of humanity and his moral stamina would fit him admirably to discharge the duties of the office of Justice of Peace.

F. S. Herr is qualified.

Cureton for State Representative.
"Fewer and Better Laws."

Many Williams people will be interested to know that Miss Maxine Simonson, now Mrs. (?) passed thru Williams last Friday on No. 10 going east with her husband on her honeymoon. Miss Simonson will be remembered as a very charming girl who left Williams some four years ago to reside in El Monte Calif.

SOCIAL ITEMS

A Surprise party—Last Friday, Aug. 25, Mrs. T. A. Moore gave an announcement party to fourteen friends of her daughter Georgia which proved to be quite a surprise to the young lady guests. The party was announced to be a farewell party for Miss Edna Polson who is soon to leave to attend school the coming year at Whittier, Calif. The day was spent at the Moore home and up to noon when a three course dinner was served the guests had no suspicion of the announcement soon to follow. After dinner had been disposed of each guest was presented with a box of candy which was found to contain besides candy a picture of Miss Georgia and Mr. Samuel Diamond of Flagstaff and a formal announcement of their engagement.

The young lady guests busied themselves during the day tying comforts for Miss Georgia without knowledge that she would soon need them, until the announcement was sprung upon them. Mrs. Moore was assisted in her duties as hostess by her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Watson. The color scheme for decorating the rooms was green and yellow.

Barnes Band and Orchestra Royally Entertained

Mrs. Geo. Reinhardt entertained the Barnes Band and Orchestra at the Reinhardt home at the corner of Fifth Street and Bill Williams Ave. last Monday night, in honor of her sister, Miss Della Lumbleau of Rochelle, Ill. Mrs. Reinhardt had her rooms very prettily decorated with roses and sweet peas. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and toward the close of the evening Miss Violet Reinhardt rendered several piano selections which were greatly appreciated. The evening was very much enjoyed by all present. Miss Lumbleau was much impressed by Prof. Barnes' work with band and orchestra. She complimented their performances very highly.

60 Couples Dance

The dance of the Gateway Club last Friday night was well attended, 60 couples participating. Mr. C. B. Wilson and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Manning and Mr. Craig Pottinger and wife of Flagstaff were among the Gateway Club's guests. All of the teachers of the Williams Public School who were in town honored the occasion by their presence. Music was furnished by the Barnes Orchestra and it was very highly spoken of.

Miss Edna Buggeln and her guest Miss Elizabeth Woodward of Los Angeles returned Tuesday from a several days pleasure outing at Oak Creek. The young ladies report a very delightful time.

Mrs. Degering Entertains

Mrs. Sam Degering entertained 47 ladies by a "500" party last Thursday afternoon. There were 9 tables with 5 at each table. The prizes were won by Mrs. Nordyke and Mrs. Marie Greene. Mrs. Degering had her rooms very beautifully decorated with sweet peas and phlox.

Visiting Her Daughter

Mrs. Chas. Swisher of Lawrence, Kans., arrived on No. 9 Wednesday to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Wells.

The meeting of the Williams Republican Club last Monday night had an attendance of about 125 men and women. The principal speaker of the evening was Hon. Tom Campbell, republican candidate for governor. Hon. George M. Smalley, republican candidate for Tax Commissioner, and Hon. Doane Merrill, republican candidate for State Auditor also addressed the Club.

Mose Was Ordered To Mosey

Mose Smith a colored man was arrested by marshal Burns last Thursday night on complaint of another colored man, John Allen, that Mose had broken into his house. Judge Sine listened to the stories of the colored men Friday morning and decided the excuse offered by Mose for house-breaking was not good. Judge Sine gave Mose 30 days and suspended sentence on condition that he mosey out of Williams before 9 p. m. and stay out. Mose moseyed.

A Piece of Skillful Engineering

It seems now that the Santa Fe is not going to tear down the brick freight and office building as the News was led to believe but instead will move them across the tracks south, bodily. This feat of engineering skill is not new, of course, but it is seldom practiced. Large brick buildings of several stories have been moved some distances in the large cities without injuring the buildings in the least. It is a safe presumption that the Santa Fe's buildings will be moved across the tracks safely, if the feat is undertaken.

Red Lake Garden Truck

Mr. Ed Roupe of Red Lake was in town Tuesday with a load of garden truck that was good for eyes and should convince the most skeptical that gardening may be very successful in this part of Arizona. Mr. Roupe had potatoes, turnips and radishes. One of his turnips weighed 4 1/2 pounds and another weighed 4 pounds. Mr. Roupe had a radish which weighed 2 1/2 pounds. The potatoes were of fine quality and of good size.

In his farming operations Mr. Roupe has applied scientific methods and a good deal of elbow grease. He has not trusted to chance in growing his crops but has done the right thing at the right time. As a result of his methods he has not only good potatoes, turnips and radishes, but he also has good oats and other grain crops including corn. He has an experimental patch of alfalfa which looks exceedingly well and is bound to encourage him to put out a considerable acreage of this valuable hay and seed crop.

The achievements of Ed Roupe along farming lines will do much to advertise northern Arizona's agricultural possibilities

THE NEW COURSE OF STUDY

People are apt to say of a course of study arranged by a new man in the position of Principal or Superintendent "O yes, of course, he wants a course of study different from that of his predecessor so he can work in some of his fads." But then, a new course of study is permissible, certainly, in a school which is in the process of development as is the Williams school.

Professor McFadden in proposing a new course of study and the Williams School Board in adopting the course of study proposed have undertaken to get into line with the most approved high school curriculum. The school is divided on what is called the Six and Six plan. The last six of the twelve grades are called high school and the High is divided into Junior High and Senior High, each having three grades. Before proposing the course of study to the Williams School Board Prof. McFadden submitted it to the teaching experts of the Leland Stanford Junior University and Prof. J. B. Sears, speaking for the University, heartily approved of the course submitted. Prof. Sears says in speaking of the curriculum submitted to him "The program is thoroughly modern and up to date. Properly administered it will afford better high school facilities than one will find in too large a percentage of our high schools."

268 Enroll In Public School

The enrollment this week in the Williams Public School is very satisfactory being 268. Of this number 39 are in high school. The teachers are getting their work well in hand and in a very short time everything will be running smoothly. The three new rooms are in use tho the new seats have not yet arrived. They are due and are expected any day.

G. N. Larson Back

Mr. G. N. Larson of Fairview has just returned from a two months visit to his old home in Chicago and to points in Wisconsin. Mr. Larson spent about one month of the warmest weather at Lake Geneva and found this resort quite comfortable. Business appeared to be good thruout the country visited by Mr. Larson tho the prospect for crops on the farms was far from promising. In politics Mr. Larson detected a good deal of uncertainty. Politicians were wondering what the outcome at the polls would be. Their stranglehold was broken and the voters were showing a great deal of independence.

Arizona seems pretty good to Mr. Larson after his wandering in the east. He'll take up the white man's burden at Fairview and bear it with cheerful resignation.

Seligman and Ash Fork crossed bats at Ash Fork last Sunday. The Seligman nine showed its superiority by a score of 12 to 5.

WHILE OTHERS HESITATE BABBITT'S ACT

When Babbitt's advertised that they would put on a lecture course in Home Economics and engaged Miss Ethel Hewey, a culinary expert of national reputation, to lecture, many shook their heads and said that Williams was too small a place for such an undertaking. Mr. G. H. Spellmire, manager of the Babbitt's Williams business, tho he knew his town and he made all necessary arrangements for the lecture course and to it he added a fall fashion show which should display on living models, gowns which are now enroute from Europe.

Miss Hewey on Hand

On the day advertised for the first lecture, Tuesday, Aug. 29, Miss Hewey was on hand and made her appearance on the platform of the improvised lecture room of the Babbitt's store. Many Williams housewives, anticipating the great benefits to be gained by listening to Miss Hewey's lectures, filled the seats in the lecture room. Fully 15 ladies listened to the first lecture.

Miss Hewey is a graduate of Kansas' famous Agricultural College where she took the course in Domestic Science. In the demonstrations which she used to exemplify the principles of home economics which she teaches, she makes use of the Red Star flour manufactured by the Red Star Mill and Elevator Company of Wichita, Kansas. The mills of this company are within the famous wheat belt of Kansas and the company has access to the best wheat raised in the world. With such flour as the Red Star Miss Hewey can safely anticipate the best of results from her demonstration cooking and for that reason she prefers it to all others.

Durning Tuesday's lecture Miss Hewey explained the economic process of making bread and cake and proved herself a culinary expert. In her work there is no chance as with many housewives. The product of her oven was perfect in every instance.

The Fall Fashion Show followed Miss Hewey's lecture last Tuesday and many beautiful suits were displayed on living models as per advertisement and to the delight of the ladies present.

On Wednesday Miss Hewey met many ladies by special appointment to talk with them about the kitchen and demonstrated fully, preparing sponges before them and making other demonstrations and answering many questions which arise in the mind of the average housewife. About 75 ladies in Miss Hewey's audience Wednesday.

It is the intention of Mr. Spellmire to put on lecture course Babbitt's Williams store every few weeks. Good flour and uses have been treated in the course. Other food products will constitute the particular subjects for future lecture course.

Mr. Jeff Evans of San Pedro, Calif. a former resident of Williams is in town this week. Mr. Evans has considerable property interest in Williams, owning the building at the corner of Railroad Avenue and Second Street and vacant lots south.
